AN EASTERN SYNDICATE BUYS LOCAL PROPERTY

HAVE TAKEN OVER ALL THE MINING INTERESTS OF JOHN M'KANE.

The many mining properties of John McKane, at one time one of the most prominent figures in mining circles in Nevada, are reported sold to an eastern syndicate who are said to be planning a resumption of work on several of them as soon as arrangements can be completed.

McKane, who at one time was the mining expert handling all of Schwab's Nevada interests, obtained possession of the Golden Anchor, Red Rock and McKane Mining company groups of claims lying a short distance north and west of Tonopah. Sometime afterward McKane became involved financially and borrowed about $75,000 from the Tonopah Banking corporation, giving the mining property as security. The sale to the easterners will clear up this debt which now amounts to nearly $100,000.

Attorney Key Pittman, who has been handling the deal, declines to give details of the transaction, but states that everything is satisfactory to all parties interested.

MANY LEASES AT PIONEER ARE NOW IN ORE

OSCAR J. SMITH SAYS SOUTHERN CAMP WILL ASTONISH THE WORLD.

Oscar J. Smith, the Rhyolite banker, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, came up from the southern camp yesterday evening. Mr. Smith is heavily interested in mining in the Pioneer section and reports the situation there as excellent.

"The Pioneer district is going to astonish the natives," said Mr. Smith, "as many of the leases are now in milling ore and will undoubtedly reach the shipping article with a little more development. The Pioneer lease continues regular shipments of from eighty to 100 tons per day of $50 to $60 ore."

ARE PREPARING TO REPAIR THE CITY CEMETERY

GRAND BALL WILL BE GIVEN MONDAY NIGHT AT MINERS HALL.

As a result of the repeated articles in the Bonanza with reference to the dilapidated condition of the city cemetery the Tonopah Promotion committee at their last meeting named a committee to confer with the county commissioners regarding the repairing of the burying grounds. This committee conferred with the commissioners and also with the representatives of several fraternal organizations, and have prepared plans for the giving of a dance at the Miners Exchange hall in the near future, the proceeds of which will be used in carrying out the good work.

H. C. Schmidt, who has charge of the matter for the committee wishes to announce that all ladies of this city who are interested in the movement, are requested to meet at the Elks' club rooms at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS ARE POSTPONED

HEARING OF W. F. FORD ON WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS TO BE HEARD TODAY.

Deputy Sheriff Vail Pittman yesterday received a telegram from Sheriff J. J. Owens at Oakland, stating that the habeas corpus proceedings that W. F. Ford had instituted to gain his liberty, had been postponed until this morning when they will be heard in the Alameda criminal court. Ford was arrested at the request of the sheriff, having been indicted by the Nye county grand jury and charged with embezzlement. If the habeas corpus proceedings fail, the sheriff will then ask for extradition papers and bring the prisoner to this city. Ford is still a prisoner, having been unable to procure $5000 bonds.

NOTHING LIKE SAGEBRUSH STATE SAYS PIONEERS

MR. AND MRS. J. T. WILLIAMS DEPART YESTERDAY FOR HOT CREEK HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams of Hot Creek, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Conant of Oakland, California, departed yesterday in the Simplex auto for their Hot Creek home.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams have been on an extensive trip since last December and have visited Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California. Mr. Williams is one of the oldest residents of Nye county, and prior to his departure yesterday stated that of all the places visited, he had seen none that could compare with Nevada, and he was willing to end his days on his ranch at Hot Creek. "We are not much on scenery," said Mr. Williams, "but we have the people and that is all one could ask for."

D. O. K. K. WILL GIVE A BALL ON DECORATION DAY

MAYBE THERE WILL BE A FOUNTAIN OF REAL ZEM ZEM FOR OCCASION.

The Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan will give a grand ball at the Miners' Exchange hall on Monday, May 31. The D. O. K. K., as they are better known, is a side branch of the Knights of Pythias, and whenever they start in for a good time there is going to be something doing. There is a possibility of a few of the guests of the evening being invited to take a trip across the hot sands, and should this be done there will be some real sport. The members of the order will attend in full costume and are preparing a few stunts to break the monotony of the evening.

FLETCHER IS ONCE MORE IN THE GAME

H. FLETCHER, AFTER A YEAR'S ILLNESS, IS BACK MINING GOOD PROPERTY.

H. Fletcher, the well known mining man and former stock broker, who about a year ago suffered a stroke of paralysis while operating valuable mining property in the Smoky valley region, and was brought to this city, left yesterday morning for the scene of his holdings. Fletcher has been improving daily and now is able to be about. The property he was working at the time he suffered the stroke, is a very valuable one and a large quantity of good ore had been encountered. He will rush the work now and expects to send out several shipments before long.
